LOVED-REDEEMED-KEPT

God!—what mental reaction does the mention of this word call forth in us? Absolute indifference, ridicule, fear, or joy? How few people think of God the way He wants them to think about Him!

For instance, God tells us, “I have loved thee with an everlasting love” (Jer. 31:3), a love so warm, so pure, so sweet, so strong, that all human comparisons can give us but a faint idea of it. It is a love unchangeable through the ages to come, yes, through eternity, “an everlasting love.”

Through this love he offers you redemption. He wants you to become His child, His property. Is it nothing to you, the price He paid? “Redeemed with the precious blood of Christ as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pet. 1:19).

God loves, God redeems, and God keeps. No need to fear that you won't be able to remain true. Every child of God is “kept by the power of God” (1 Pet. 1:15). The assurance of this keeping power brings us true joy, calmness of soul in all circumstances of life. Won't you make Him your own, Him who yearns for your soul? If you do, you will be able to say: I am loved, I am redeemed, I am kept. To God be the glory!

*If we had but one day to live,
And if we KNOW 'twas so,
What would we do, what would we say,
And to what places would we go?*

*Would we continue living as We'd always lived before,
Or seek with fear and fev'rish haste
To “even up the score?”*

*Would we with tears bewail our fate,
And spend the day in sorrow,
Or, glad await, with joy and hope,
Eternity's to-morrow?*

*If we are Christ's and He is ours,
Time's end will bring no fear,
But be for us the gate to Heaven,
That land without a tear-*

(Chester E. Shuler)

THEME SONG — LIVING FOR JESUS

*Living for Jesus a life that is true,
Striving to please Him in all that I do,
Yielding allegiance, glad hearted and free,
This is the pathway of blessing for me.*

CHORUS—

*O Jesus, Lord and Saviour,
I give myself to thee,
For thou, in Thy atonement,
Didst give Thyself for me;
I own no other Master,
My heart shall be thy throne,
My life I give, henceforth to live,
O Christ, for thee alone.*

FOR HIM AT C.T.I.

MYRTLE E. JANZEN.

HELEN GRUNWALD.

At C. T. I. we're gathered, To learn His will to do.
The Lord is our Master; He hears and answers prayer.
To Him we bring our praises For gracious things He's done.
A life of con-sec-ra-tion For Him we wish to live.

When darkness is a-round us, We trust He'll see us through.
We cannot meet disast-er When He does for us care.
To Him we raise our voices, In one har-mon-ious song.
To serve His ev'ry nation With love our all we give.

Thy will is ours, dear Savior; Our wish is Thee to please;

At C. T. I. our aim is To spir-it-u'-ally in-crease.

A Message from the President

We Have Heard His Voice

In a world noisy and full of confusion it is not always easy to hear distinctly. The sense of hearing becomes dulled and unreliable. In the present day and age when we have so many means and ways to hear much that is going on in the world we do not always find it easy to discern and recognize the voice speaking to us. And often it can even today be said: "the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of God, and not of a man", but the true God is not heard at all.

Rev. E. P. Wahl

Yet to him who waits on the Lord there comes that mighty and also so melodious voice of God, which makes us appreciate more the words of Longfellow:

"Oh, there is something in that voice that reaches the innermost recesses of my spirit."

So often, however, God must bring us to a "stop", so that we might hear Him. Surrounded by so many voices it is very easy to become confused and err. But as we pause before the Lord we soon do learn, "the people's voice is odd, it is, and it is not the voice of God". It is the blessed quietness which makes us hear and understand clearly when God speaks and sets our hearts on fire. We then launch out and face the day with courage and assurance. It really takes an experience of which the Prophet speaks: "for the Lord our God hath put us to silence", before we are ready to hear and undertake for Him. When He has become real to us and we have heard His voice bid us "do" then our souls break forth in exultation in word and deed like the slumbering perennials in our gardens break forth anew when the spring sunshine kisses the earth.

Was it not in the stillness of the night—and it was a very dark night—God spoke to our soul? What marvelous grace that He would let us even then hear His voice. He told us of the trust He placed in us. He spoke of His undying love for the lost sinner; of His mighty works in the hearts of men and women; of His transforming power we did hear Him speak. He spoke of triumph and victory over evil, death and hell. He spoke until we humbly bowed and could refrain no longer from crying out, "Lord, here am I". Quietly but determinately we submitted with the child-like trust of the little New England girl that was about to be operated on and whose case was very serious, prayed:

"Jesus tender Shepherd, hear me,
Bless thy little lamb tonight;
Through the darkness be thou near me;
Bring me safe to morning light."

Too often we have found ourselves too busy, that we lost this child-like faith. But deep down in our soul we know we have need for a faith like that of the little girl. And, praise the Lord, we can have it if we take time for it. Such has been our experience in the Bible School Work.

Again and again God has proven His faithfulness at and through the Christian Training Institute. Many hearts have been blessed through its ministry; many young people have developed most beautifully in their spiritual lives. We behold with wonderment the loving kindness of our heavenly Father and pray as David did of old:

"But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee."

A WORD FROM OUR GRADUATES

The days spent at C.T.I. have been a great uplift to my spiritual life. How I do praise Him for making my Bible and my Savior become more precious to me day by day. The daily classes, the chapel periods, the prayer meetings, combined with the happy fellowship with the students shall long linger in my mind.

My desire is to follow my Savior closely, and with His strength let my light shine for Him. "We are His workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10.

Ruth Unger, Olds, Alta.

With much joy and happiness I look back to the days and years I was privileged to attend the Christian Training Institute. It was through the study of God's precious Word, our blessed prayer meetings, the practical work, and the Christian fellowship at school that I was led closer to my Lord, and that I learned to love and to trust Him more. With the realization of the world's great need of Christ as Savior, I have pledged my life to the Lord that I might be used of Him in His service in whatever way He sees fit.

Rose Weiss, Olds, Alta.

For my motto I have chosen Phil. 1:21 "For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain." I thank God for the privilege I had of attending C.T.I. and for the blessings I received in studying His most precious Word. I have enjoyed the happy Christian fellowship of the students at school. The blessings received during chapel periods, prayer meeting and in our class periods will never be forgotten. The kind, helpful, and uplifting suggestions of the teachers will be of great benefit in the days to come.

Herta Krueger, Olds, Alta.

If a picture of the nature and character of my life prior to C.T.I. instruction and the present could be displayed here, I am sure that there would be an expression of astonishment on all of your faces. Of course we all know that it is Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit that transforms life, but He cannot begin to transform until there is a certain amount of understanding of God's plan for the ages. As our understanding increases, the opportunity for the work of the Holy Spirit also increases in transforming our lives.

I am thankful to C.T.I. that its endeavors are to open opportunities within the hearts of its students for the work of the Holy Spirit.

Isador Faszer, Hilda, Alta.

I praise God for having had the wonderful privilege the past four winters of receiving Bible instruction, Christian training and experience in practical work. This has proven to be a great help to me. It has strengthened me spiritually and thus prepared me for the Lord's service. I have dedicated my all to Christ and His cause, and my desire is to serve Him wherever He leads.

Pearl (Weiss) Faszer, Hilda, Alta.

Bible School years have come to an end all too quickly. God has been so good and gracious to me. Never before has He been so real and so near. I have experienced that God has a place for each and everyone of us. It is our duty to fill that place. I pray for strength to do my part in serving Him.

Helen Grunwald, Leduc, Alta.

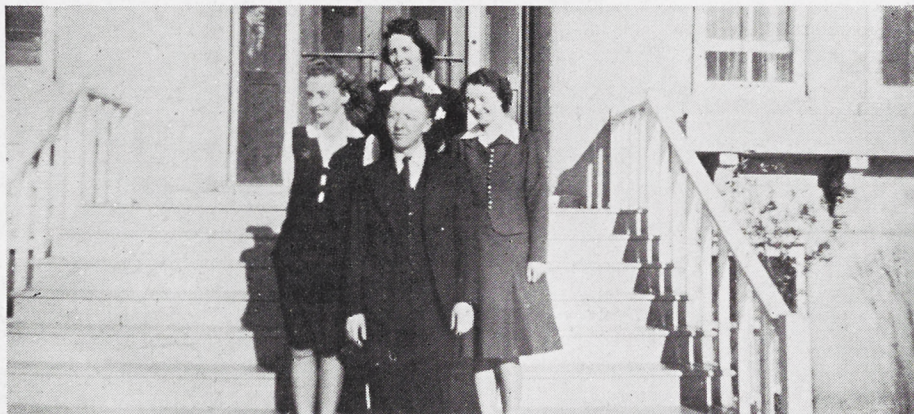

In counting the blessings of God, the blessings of fellowship at Bible School would be the first on my list. Fellowship of students in work and in play, a continuous give and take of ideas and attitudes in the classroom, in chapel periods, in prayer groups, around tables, and the intimate friendship of fellow students have held countless blessings for me. Then, too, I want to mention the fellowship with our teachers in which they have given their time and talent for us. Last but not least comes the fellowship of the triune God, feeling His presence and guidance. All of this will not only be a passing blessing of four years spent at C.T.I., but will continue to grow in my life.

Laura Goltz, Edmonton, Alta.

The precious gems of God's Word that I have gathered during the past four winters at C.T.I. have truly been an inspiration to me, as well as a firm foundation upon which to build my Christian life. With Paul I say: "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God", and may God give me the strength to fulfill my aim.

ROBERT SCHREIBER

To work at C.T.I. has been a pleasure and great blessing to me. God bless this institute and use it to further His cause.

My association with the C.T.I. has made me conscious that it is indeed God's own work. It has been a joy to meet the class in Personal Work during the school year. We trust each student will become an earnest soul winner for the Lord Jesus.

Messages to the Graduates

There is a bright and friendly face,
For Helen Grunwald wears it so.
Indeed, she's always in her place
To make the smiles and friendship grow.

So sweet and so melodious
Is Mrs. Faszler's gentle voice;
A blessed thought her song will cause
With message which is pure and choice.

Then we must note that Isador
A keen observance does possess;
He eagerly is watching for
Each detail, to be a success.

To be with Herta one can know
That all one's fears be put away.
She answers with a laugh or so
"Leave worry for another day!"

For song and music oft she's called,
And Ruth will always do her best.
Her thoughts with studies are enthralled;
She surely always stands the test.

In Alvin Straub you'll find the one
Who's short in height, but not in speech;
He has a worthy race to run,
For he shall surely learn to preach.

And Laura Goltz is just the one
Who adds the note of fun and cheer,
Her merry-making's never done—
But first her slate's of homework clear.

The virtues, care and thought, they are Characteristics of Rose Weiss.
Her sympathy—it reaches far;
Her gift of understanding, nice!

The time and money we spend in acquiring knowledge and building up our spiritual life is the time and money we save.

E. P. Wahl.

I am thankful to Him for another term of golden opportunities, privileges and blessings in service at C.T.I.

PRAYER LIFE AT C. T. I.

Rr-ring, there goes the bell! It is just a quarter to ten and time for the regular evening prayer group meetings. There is a bit of hustling about as the students hurry to the different rooms which ends in complete silence. Then the well-known hymn "Sweet Hour of Prayer" is heard throughout the school.

After this a portion of Scripture is read, followed by a few comments or by the reading of a poem. Then the lights are put out and we go to our Lord in prayer. The joy, the peace, the love that we experience by speaking to Him who understands and cares cannot be expressed in words. Each night there is a specific prayer request which each group brings to God in prayer, and our hearts are overwhelmed when we know our prayers have been heard and answered.

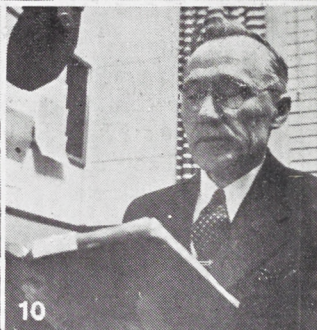

Saturday evening finds us all in the assembly room where we have a special joint prayer meeting. The spirit of God is then so manifested in our midst. It is so uplifting and blessed to have such sweet communion with our Savior.

After a term at C.T.I. no student ever goes out the same as he came. Through the prayer life here we come to realize our infirmities and weaknesses and the great need for full surrender to Him in order to fulfill the great mission of saving souls for Him. Our motto is: "Praying always for you." Col. 1:3.

I consider the service that I am able to render at the C.T.I. a privilege and a challenge in the Kingdom of God.

Glorifying God in Practical Christian Service

There's a place for everyone
In the service of the King;
There is work that must be done
If the world to Christ we bring.

Be your talents one or ten,
Keep a heart that's brave and true;
There's a place for everyone,
There's a place for you.

Today we look to youth for help in every respect. The world is greatly in need of leaders. Comparatively few outstanding leaders are developed in a generation; but there are thousands of places to be filled by such who have qualities of leadership to some degree. True it is, there is plenty room at the top. And even though you and I may never become a top-notch leader we should aspire in humbleness to attain great heights. The best is not too good or too great for our Master. We want to be all we can by way of service.

Never in the world's history has opportunity been so great for our young people for spiritual service. This service requires able, Spirit-filled, enthusiastic, efficient young people. To become truly efficient we need preparation. The Christian Training Institute is doing a fine work in aiding the students to make the needed preparation, and then in helping them find their place in service.

The students of C.T.I. are grateful indeed for the privilege and opportunities presented to them in practical Christian service. The mild winter has given us a splendid opportunity for service outside our city, with gospel teams serving in surrounding districts, even in the neighboring province. They have also served at prayer meetings, Young People's rallies, the teaching of S. S. classes and visitation of the sick. Many have had the privilege to preach the Word in various churches and Rescue Missions.

We are thankful for the large number whom God has talented with music and song. These talents were used to the greatest advantage to the glorification of His Name. "The Sunday Morning Devotional Hour" over radio in which the students have participated weekly has proven a great blessing to the large radio audience.

The Saturday afternoon street meetings were something quite out of the ordinary for many of our students. Yet this particular work has been greatly enjoyed and blessed as they testified in word and song out in the open air for Him who has become their all in all. At these meetings as well as others they were always ready to serve with a little silent messenger and have learned to love this type of service.

We thank God that there is work for all who can give their full time during the summer. In the summer past, students have faithfully and joyously served churches and communities in varied places and God has richly blessed their efforts. Summer vacation schools were held throughout our provinces in our churches and outlying districts in which students of C.T.I. have taken a great part.

We have only a short time to win our victories—faithful we shall be to Him who giveth us the victory.

"We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths
In feelings, not in figures on a dial;
We should count time by heart-throbs when they beat;
For God, for men, for duty. He most lives
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best."

Myrtle Hein.

OUR HOME FRONT

Rev. Benke and some students holding meeting with Indians at Samson Reserve.

Christ, our great commander, said to His disciples: "Ye are the light of the world." Christians are the bright lights in a dark world. We are the light—and torch-bearers. As we think of our pioneers, who have endured privation, hardships, want and necessities of life that they might make known the "unsearchable riches in Christ Jesus", we are thankful to God for the lives of such who have ventured out on faith for the cause of the Lord in Western Canada. We readily recall the names of Rev. F. Petereit, Rev. F. A. Mueller, Rev. A. Hager and others whose memory is cherished by German Baptists as the frontier workers in the mission cause of the West. They handed the torch to us and we are called on to help spread the Light in a dismal world.

Christ also said to His disciples: "Give ye them to eat." There are hungry hearts waiting for the Bread of Life. The terse statement has been made: "This world is dying for a little bit of love." The statement can be emphasized even more:

"There are souls to rescue, there are souls to save. Send the light."

Shall we briefly view our missionary activity and the golden opportunities in the ripe harvest field of the Lord here in Western Canada:

The Indians. It is to them we owe a special duty and have a grave responsibility to tell them of the Savior's love. Some glorious trophies have been redeemed and made heirs of the Kingdom of the Lord. They now come in child-like faith to the Great God, who is the Father of all, irrespective of race or class. God knows no geographical boundaries or racial differences. Although the Indian is noted to be stoic, yet their appreciation of service rendered in Jesus' name has been so touching. Personal inquiries and appealing requests have come in repeatedly during last summer, and since we have been at the Christian Training Institute at Edmonton, Alberta, God graciously directed us to these needy ones of our country. We were able to make several mission trips to three reserves near Hobbema. Students generally came along and rendered valuable service that counts for time and eternity. Lives have been touched and brought closer to God through the uplifting messages in song and music and the heart stirring testimonies to our blessed Savior. Chief John Bear, who invited us as the first missionaries to hold a Gospel service on his reserve, has so aptly expressed the sentiment and appreciation of his people in the following words: "I like to listen to your singing and music. It is so nice and we all thank you for your good prayers for us poor Indians."

Student working among negroes at Shiloh

Colored People. The Shiloh Baptist Church of Edmonton has been without a pastor for a time, and upon request teachers and students of the Christian Training Institute have come to their assistance during the school months. We have had a number of blessed services there. Students had an active share in these Sunday night Gospel meetings, bringing the Word of God and singing praises unto Him. The fervent prayers of colored and white people ascending to the throne of God deeply impressed us that with God there is no color-problem, but we are all one in Christ Jesus, our wonderful Redeemer.

Negroes love to sing and play

Peace River District. The mission teacher and students of the Christian Training Institute have carried on a blessed work in the Peace River district during last summer. Two converts from that area are attending the C.T.I. this winter. Several students are now serving the Lord there. Many are the possibilities in this vast and fast developing frontier section of our country. We are thankful to the Lord for the interest that is being shown to launch out for the Master in this needy mission field. Plans are under way to send out more labourers in this vineyard of the Lord, including several students from our Christian Training Institute.

Fred W. Benke.

THE REGIONS BEYOND

"To the regions beyond I must go, I must go,
Where the story has never been told;
To the millions that never have heard of His love,
I must tell the sweet story of old.
To the regions beyond I must go, I must go,
Till the world, all the world,
His salvation shall know."

The 11-year-old "Queen" and her brother, Chief of Wat, 1943.

other missionaries, both men and women are considering going to the Cameroons. And many more are needed to carry the Gospel story to those in dark Africa. We hope and pray that students of the Christian Training Institute will also respond to the Divine Call and answer: "Lord, here am I, send me!"

May we have the same motive in our missionary enterprise that animated the great apostle Paul when he testified: "Let me be ambitious to preach the Gospel where Christ has not been named."

Rom. 15:20 (R.V.)

The history of our Cameroon Mission field, with its heroic men and women, who have labored and laid down their lives for the cause of the Master that was so dear to their hearts, is of great interest in the annals of foreign missions. The words of Alfred Saker are so expressive of this noble ideal: "Oh, if I had only another life, I would gladly spend it in Africa." This same spirit of devotion has dominated all the succeeding missionaries, from August Steffens on to the present. We have assumed the support of all the stations formerly belonging to the Baptists of Germany. Besides these there are the new fields opening up for the Gospel of Christ. But forces are depleted. George and Louise Dunger are our only missionaries on the field at present. Some of the missionaries are home on furlough. Miss Amanda C. Kruse is under appointment,

" 'Tis the Church's great commission
This the Master's last command.
Christ has died for ev'ry creature,
Tell it out in ev'ry land.
Go and tell them, go and tell them
Jesus died for sinful men
Go and tell them, go and tell them
He is coming back again."

F. W. Benke.

Mission Work in the Cameroons Today

Four years ago, our denomination had two mission fields within the Cameroons, and six missionaries working on these fields. Kaka field had Rev. and Mrs. Paul Gebauer and Miss Laura Reddig, and Mambila field had Rev. and Mrs. George Dunger and Miss Edith Koppin. Furloughs were due for the Gebauers and Miss Koppin, so only three missionaries remained on the field after March, 1941.

The war brought on the interning of all missionaries of the four German Baptist fields in the Cameroons, and their entire work was without supervision and support until our mission took over their work at the close of 1941. Now there were six mission fields: Kaka, Mambila, Ndu, Belo, Balondo, and Soppo. The churches and membership taken over was much larger than that of our original fields, and the area was now extended from the grasslands in the interior to the forest belt of the coast.

Recognizing the great handicap we found ourselves in regarding trained native workers in churches and schools, we felt that we had to build up the work from almost nothing, and through our Mission schools we were to find and train the future leaders of the Cameroons. No plans of any sort were received as we took over where the German missionaries had left off, so the task of becoming acquainted with their whole work was tedious and often discouraging. After two full years since we have tried to manage, supervise, guide and direct that entire work, the three missionaries feel that new missionaries coming out now will find the work fairly well organized, and definite goals in view, and a selected group of consecrated leaders with which to work.

The present needs of the field are indeed very urgent, and unless at least six or more missionaries are sent out before this year is over, the doors which God has so miraculously opened will be closed to our denomination. Pray for missionaries trained as pastors, a doctor, nurses, teachers, an agricultural missionary and one who can teach manual and industrial work. God is calling to us, and as this is now our only foreign mission field, let us praise Him for the blessings of the past on this field, and go forward with Him and for His glory in the Cameroons. Twenty-five to thirty missionaries are needed in the next two or three years. Many thousands are yet to be won, and all who have become Christians are looking to us to help them learn the new things which a desire for better living brings. They are our responsibility, and may God keep us faithful to the opportunities we have of winning them to Him.

Laura E. Reddig.

THE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTE CHORUS

I thank my Lord that He gave me the privilege of teaching at C.T.I. I always had the longing to do something for Him along that line. Whatever I did was done for His glory. May he continue to bless our students as they strive to serve Him in the future.

Robert Neske.

I consider it a privilege to be able to teach at the C.T.I. I feel that what I have, I have from God, and this is but a small way in which I can show Him my gratitude for what He has given to me.

Agnes Rinas.

Glorifying God in Music

"O come let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with Psalms. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all Gods." Psalms 95: 1-3.

Because we believe this we want to give the best to our Master. He who not only saved us but is keeping us expects not the talents He has given us as He gave them, but He desires us to develop them and use them to the honour and glorification of His Holy Name.

Music plays a large part in Christian Service and that is why the students of C.T.I. receive a thorough knowledge of music during their four years term. Our services would be very dull and uninteresting without any music and certainly not be well attended. Therefore we study music to brighten the services. Many souls who are left untouched by the sermon are often brought to Christ through song.

Fundamentals of music are taught at C.T.I. This is the equivalent of Theory I and II at the Toronto Conservatory of Music. The students also receive one year of harmony. A theoretical foundation is built through these studies which is then applied to practical use in the "Service of the King". A course is given in conducting which is beneficial to all of the students, but especially to those who are talented in this respect. Mr. Neske and Miss Inez Wahl teach voice and piano respectively. Many of the students are taking advantage of this opportunity.

The students not only study music but do practical work as well. The quartets, trios, duets and solos rendered have already been a great spiritual benefit to many who have heard these personally as well as over the air. When hearing the student choir which is under the direction of Mr. Neske of Camrose, we already have a foretaste of that choir in which we shall all join some day in praise to His Name.

Students who play an instrument have brought these along to C.T.I. and have formed an orchestra, also under the direction of Mr. Neske. C.T.I. students not only go to churches of our denomination, but are asked to many of the other city churches to render service in song. Churches bordering the city of Edmonton are also taking advantage of the opportunity of hearing the students. The avenue of music is one of the greatest in Christian service.

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord." Col. 3:16.

Agnes Rinas.

Letters, letters and more letters! That's the way the day begins. Oh! Oh! just noticed that the hand of the clock points to 8:40 a.m. Classes must begin. Therefore I must leave the typewriter and ring that bell. My what a jump! There is that telephone again. The day usually consists of typing, bookkeeping, mimeographing, etc., but am happy to do my little part as secretary of the C.T.I. to help further the Kingdom of God.

It is my sincere prayer that they may give the same devotedness to the service of the Lord and be led by Him into great fields of valuable service.

George B. Dawe.

The joy of serving Christ in a small way at C.T.I. has been unspeakable. May the Lord bless the work of the school in days to come.

Mrs. H. J. Waltereit.

A DAY AT C.T.I.

Would you like to stay with us tonight and enjoy the morrow here at the school? I'm sure it would be of great interest to you. We will go to bed now, for lights must be out at 10:30.

Ho-hum! There goes the rising bell. Well, I guess we better roll out, the breakfast bell rings at 7 o'clock. The next scene is the gathering of students around the breakfast tables. A chorus is started and everyone joins in the singing, after which a short devotional is enjoyed. During the meal profitable discussions arise and a happy time of fellowship is enjoyed. Breakfast over, we sing another chorus. After the dean's "Amen" dishes are taken to the kitchen. In no time the dishes are washed, tables set for dinner and floors swept. Of course, our rooms need cleaning too. We must hurry for at 20 minutes to eight we have quartet practice. What a joy to sing praises unto the Lord, not only at school, but over the air and various other places.

Do come into our Comparative Religions class this morning. Having opened the class with prayer, Mr. Benke, the teacher, says, "Rudolph, can you tell me in what ways the teachings of Hinduism differ with Christianity?" It was easily answered for Rudolph had listened carefully when Mr. Benke in his unique way of expressing himself compared the isms and modern teachings with Christianity.

But we must leave this class and see what Mr. Dawe teaches in 3rd year Homiletics. That is real training in the science and art of presenting God's truth. I enjoyed Ernest's message very much. Has he been told before to keep his hand out of his pocket when he preaches? Mrs. Waltereit's English class is worth attending, those "and's" and "but's". "You did very well in your talk this morning, Lena. I only noticed one "er" and one "ugh".

Mr. Wahl is teaching Christian Doctrine. Shall we spend about 10 minutes there and then go to Mr. Wedmann's class on Poetical Books. "Well what do you think, class, does every Christian have the Holy Spirit, or do we have to wait and pray for the Holy Spirit?" Those psalms certainly showed forth the sufferings of Christ, and taking them so thoroughly will really plant the truths firmly into one's mind.

We have a guest speaker in chapel this morning. This is always a blessed gathering, the sweetness of Christ's presence is felt, we are uplifted and encouraged to do things for Him.

We'll have time to visit three more classes if we don't stay too long. Mr. Waltereit is teaching 2nd year Sunday School Department Specialization in classroom A. How can we explain to a beginner that God is near even if He is not seen? We must be careful to choose that which their limited understanding can grasp.

This is interesting, but shall be go into classroom B for a few minutes and see what Mrs. Finlay has to say in Personal Work class? Young folks, this is the most vital phase of work in our Christian life, to win our fellow men to the Savior, to speak to souls personally and to show them the way to Christ, the one who alone can save.

Mr. Schilke's class in Corinthians is very essential as we study Paul's life in connection with the people from Corinth, but we have only a few minutes left, so we'll go to Miss Hein's D.V.B.S. class. Is this kindergarten? Construction paper, scissors, glue and paints scattered over the table. Vera will give the lesson this morning, and the rest of the class will have to pretend to be boys and girls.

That's the dinner bell. Isn't that an appetizing odor drifting from the kitchen. Footsteps are heard from every part of the building, and down we go for a good tasty meal.

Do you enjoy snow-balling? We like to rush outdoors (at times) for a few minutes in our noon hour and get our lungs filled with some good fresh air, because our first class this afternoon is choir rehearsal, and there's the bell. — "Remember to breathe from your stomach and don't force the sound. Softer, sopranos, softer, softer, softer. Altos! what's the matter? Alright, let's start again." The hour has passed too quickly but Mrs. Wahl is ready for the girls' half hour of gymnastics which is the hardest work of the day. "Raise arms upward, sideways, forward, down, one, two, three, four." "Mrs. Wahl, I can't lift my arms anymore."

Now we have a little time to ourselves and generally we do our homework. I'm sorry you have to leave right after supper I know you'd enjoy our group prayer meeting at 9:45. Nevertheless it was nice to have you with us for today. I must finish a heavy assignment tonight. Our papers are due tomorrow, and Mr. Waltereit will deduct if they're not in on time.

Good-bye—I'm quite sure you'll be one of us next year.

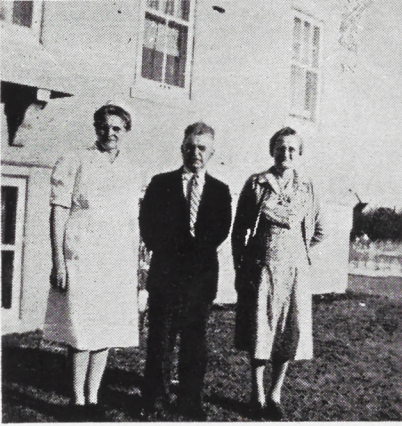

Lena and Martha Paul.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. WAHL—

I enjoy the work in God's Kingdom as supervisor and chief cook in the kitchen, trying to be a mother even in days of illness. I find real joy in caring for my big Christian family.

Mrs. E. P. Wahl.

"Without these cooks the school
could not exist"

Mr. and Mrs. Seer

THE KITCHEN

R-r-r-ring!

"Oh that alarm! why does it have to ring at this hour of the night?" These are very often the thoughts of the girls that rise early in the morning to make breakfast for the students.

Shortly after these two girls are busily engaged in the preparation of the morning meal, three more, sleepy-eyed girls come in and look dolefully at the potatoes and other vegetables that are to be peeled.

Before long, however, if you happen to be awake at that hour, you will soon hear peals of muffled laughter coming from the regions of the kitchen, and if perchance you would get a peek into the room, you would see five light-hearted, bright-eyed, jolly girls busy at peeling vegetables and preparing the breakfast.

The peeling of the vegetables, preparing of breakfast, and the dishwashing, are all done by the students.

Our kitchen staff which is comprised of Mrs. Wahl, and Mr. and Mrs. Seer, prepare the dinner and supper and are general supervisors of all the activities in the kitchen.

Truly we have been blessed by an excellent and truly consecrated kitchen staff this year.

As we all know many articles are rationed, many are hard to get, and in some cases substitutes have to be used. Nevertheless, due to the ingenuity and devotion to duty of our kitchen staff, we as students have never found a meal to be anything but plenteous and nourishing.

Eldon Janzen.

Our Christian Training Institute

God bless our Training Institute
Whose deeds reach forth through all the world!
May all the lands by it be blest
And Jesus' banner be unfurled.
With instruments and voice be there
Harmonious music everywhere.
With echoes let us crowd the air.
Let doubt and fear be backward hurled.

To have close fellowship with God
Is truly our soul's desire;
To walk within His holy will
We trust that He will us inspire.
And so in chapel every day
We meet to testify and pray
And serve our Lord in every way,
For Him to be a living fire.

The day 's in concentration spent,
And evening hours slipped away,
And once again we go to rest—
But not before we pause to pray
In groups, with Him an unseen guest.
This is much needed food and rest
For our soul; it is the best,
And is the highlight of the day!

Truly it's been a blessed term
We've spent for God and for the Truth.
It's truly a decision wise
To here enlist the time of youth.
As we do study week by week,
In various ways more knowledge seek
In various subjects, learn to speak,
We pray 'twould be for God and Truth.

At Christian Training Institute
Once more a blessed term is spent;
Once more the evening sun has set.
How much to all our lives it's meant!
Now as our all we give to Thee
May our message ever be
Thy Gospel rich and full and free.
Throughout the world we would be sent!

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

The editor of the 1944 "C.T.I. Promoter" wishes to express his appreciation and gratitude for the fine co-operation given to him by the students, members of the faculty, and his wife who did all the art work.

Rev. H. J. WALTEREIT (Editor)

Greetings and Testimonies from Former C.T.I. Students

The days spent at C.T.I. are precious jewels of untold value; especially so, since we began our full time service a few months ago at our Pound and Gillett Churches in Wisconsin. The practical experiences and the Biblical knowledge received there, plus the fellowship with other young people is an ideal background for service to our churches for any young person.

I cannot find words to express my gratitude toward the Institute, its faculty and friends who contributed so much toward the progress of C.T.I., but we can remember prayerfully the work of this great organization. May it continue to prosper and may all who enter into its portals share of the manna from above. I salute the dean and matron and all members of the present faculty and say "carry on", for Jesus says—"as much as ye have done it unto the least of these ye have done it unto me."

Agnes (Priebe) Mashner
Pound, Wis., U.S.A.

Greetings in His dear name! 10810-78th Avenue, Edmonton, Alta., will always be a hallowed and God-sent institution in our memories. We spent three blessed years within its doors, and the blessings received are innumerable. Those days were filled with wisdom and knowledge for us because we were under the guidance and leadership of God-sent and inspired teachers. Praise God for the souls won because of C.T.I.'s existence! May God continue to bless and lead throughout the coming year is our prayer.

Mildred and Rinold Neuman.

It makes me happy to recall many happy days spent at C.T.I. in Christian fellowship and preparing myself for the work of the Lord. They were days spent in the presence of the Lord, days of deep heart-searching when the Lord revealed His plans in life for us. With our graduating motto in mind "Forward with Christ" we have gone out laboring for the Master in the Peace River District, having the assurance of Phil. 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Charles Fleck

One of my great aims in attending the C.T.I. was to solve a problem in my life which had been greatly disturbing me for three years. I had felt the call of God to devote my entire life for Christian service. In order to make certain whether it was only my own idea or if it really was God's call, I attended the C.T.I. While there, the call became stronger than ever, and I finally yielded. I am now attending the Baptist Missionary Training School of Chicago in preparation for full time Christian service. The C.T.I. will always remain to me as one of the highlights in all of my Christian training. It laid the foundation for my going into full time Christian service.

Ida Forsch

With thankful heart I look back to the blessed days spent at C.T.I. They deepened my faith in God, brought me closer to Him in rededicating my life to Him and to His service. The training received at C.T.I. is a great help to me now as I work for my Lord in His vineyard. It is a blessed work we are privileged to do for God in these dark days: A work that is not without results or blessings. It is a work that shall last for time and eternity.

My sincere congratulations to the graduating class of 1944, and may 1 Cor. 15:58 be a stimulus to you in the service for your Master. God bless you!

Raymond Dickau
Prince George, B.C.

My days at C.T.I. have left me a clear memory of Christian fellowship. As I worked and studied, my desire to gain more and more knowledge about the contents of the wonderful Bible increased from day to day. Then, too, it gave me a chance to serve by singing. As a former member of the male quartet, I must say, that I really enjoyed taking part in it. Now, while I am serving in the armed forces, I keep a vision of the real Christ near to guide me and also guard me from so many temptations. I have one desire, and that is that God might lead me back again to C.T.I.

A friend in Christ
Fred Sonnenberg

We are deeply indebted to the Christian Training Institute for strengthening our Christian faith and for making more dear to us the fountain of God's word. Especially do we thank God for our Bible School, because it was through its instrumentality that we were led to see more clearly the vision of a needy world and an ever redeeming and life-giving Saviour. It was there that we heard a distinct call to be true ministers of the Gospel. We dare not be disobedient, but must "teach others also" the things which we have heard.

MORRIS BAPTIST CHURCH

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth." We should like to change this truth a little by saying: The foundation of every church is the Christian education of its youth.

We are glad to know that just such an education is being given to numbers of young people from our churches all over Canada. And in spite of the distance of the school from us at Morris, we have received many blessings through the young people who have attended C.T.I.

Our various organizations, the Sunday School, Y.P., mixed choir, male choir, Band, Ladies Aid and the church as a whole wish to express their appreciation of the work being done in Edmonton, in the service of the King, through the words of the apostle Peter, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 1:7.

The Baptist Church of Morris, Man., bids you a hearty welcome to her Sunday and week-day services.

Rev. H. Schatz, Pastor.

During periods of turmoil a greater need for Christian Training and Christ-like ministry is necessary.

A great responsibility rests on the shoulders of those who graduate in these times and may they take their places in life knowing that the Christian church and its doctrines are the foundation of our whole social order.
